	This style of port is produced from one single vineyard. It is said that was born by a mistake when a vintage port was kept for too long and wasn't suitable for its category.

	Dow's Vintage Port 2000	170.-	2040.-
	Port is a fine value and marries delicious red fruit flavors with dark cocoa power and a slightly spicy, vibrant finish. It is made from a single year's harvest and then aged for four years in oak casks.

	Dow's Vintage Port 1985	250.-	3000.-
	Probably one of the best vintages of the 80's which has a wonderfully ripeness of texture, with smooth tannins a well-defined, yet mellow core of inky black fruits.
